YOU

There is no business in the world quite like farming in making your own decisions, charting your own course, free from the influences, pressures, and compromises that are a part of most businesses. By and large, your farm is what you choose to make of it.

We chose Polled Shorthorns and have never regreted the decision. Having had commercial cattle of another breed prior to our Polled Shorthorns, we have had some personal basis for comparison. We find their ability to gain on grass as well as with feed, the ample milk given by the cows, their greater natural size, result in more efficient beef production.

We also decided to make our Polled Shorthorn herd one of the nation's foremost. This is another decision we have never regreted, partly because of the satisfaction of raising something really good, partly because better cattle are always more profitable.

To reach this goal it was necessary to travel widely, invest in the finest breeding stock and the best bulls available. Our annual sales, from which buyers from 13 states and Canada have drawn seed, have been an important part of our program.

The greatest satisfaction comes from making available a product that will do an improving job for someone else. In six years we have sold nearly 300 bulls. About 70 per cent of our business comes from those who have purchased from us before.

In 1953 our neighbor, Earle Moody bought five cows with calves at side and re-bred for $1950. Sixteen months later he had sold $1635 in produce from these. In four years he has taken in cash $3270 from this group, still has three of the cows, two heifers from them, all have calves at foot again, and he is also selling a bull from one of these cows in this sale. Since that time, Earle has enlarged his herd to one of the nation's finest, and we are proud to have men like him and the other guest consignors associated with this year's sale. We are rapidly developing the Dothan area into the Polled Shorthorn stronghold of the Southeast.

and YOUR FARM . . .

it's what you make it . . . and you can make it more profitable and enjoyable with Polled Shorthorns.

I often think of a statement made in a brochure from Ray and Gerald Clodfelter, Greencastle, Indiana, in which they said,

"Glatwyn Farms are made up of three adjoining farms totaling 360 acres with three sets of buildings. The farms were purchased one at a time with money made from Polled Shorthorns . . . the only produce from our farming operation. Glatwyn Farms is a family affair. Dad, Mother, Son and Daughter-in-Law working toward one end . . . to produce better Polled Shorthorns."

Your farm will be more profitable, more satisfying with Polled Shorthorns . . . and the better you make them, the more you will get out of it.

I have said nothing about the sale cattle. The rest of the catalog covers that. I think you will agree it is the finest offering we have yet brought forward. We hope you will own some of them, but, remember, whether you come to buy or are just visiting, it will indeed be a pleasure to me, my family, and the men on the farm to have you with us.

About The Past L and L Sales

278 lots in the four L and L sales have totaled $145,275 for an overall average of $523. The top sale was in 1954 when 63 animals averaged $725. The 1953 and 1954 L and L sales were the top averaging purebred sales of any breed in Alabama . . . an achievement made after a relatively short time in the purebred business.

An average of 72 lots have been sold in each of the five L and L sales. This is nearly double the average size sale offering, and provides L and L sale crowds with more than twice the buying opportunities.

Our proudest record is the high percentage of repeat buyers. This figure climbs with each successive sale. In 1954, 54% of the buyers had purchased from L and L previously. In the January, 1955 sale, 61% of the buyers had purchased from L and L previously. In the October, 1955 sale 64% of the buyers had purchased from L and L previously. Unless our cattle were working out well for our customers such a record could not be attained.

Top cattlemen from thirteen states and Canada have purchased in the previous L and L sales.

There have been many instances where the calves in dam or calves at foot purchased in the L and L sale have been sold for far more than the cost of the mother. In the January, 1955 sale Bob Godwin purchased a heifer bred to Oakwood Conquest for $875. Her heifer calf was sold in the 1957 Oakwood sale for $2000, selected by Herman Purdy, one of the nation's greatest judges, for the herd at Pennsylvania State College. This is the only selection he made and we are proud to have an Oakwood Conquest heifer at Penn State.

In one of the L and L sales, Acadia Farms, Northfield, Ohio bought a young open heifer for $700. They took her home and bred her to Calrossie Troubadour. The calf she dropped was sold in the 1957 Acadia sale for $1000.

OAKWOOD CONQUEST as a two year old.

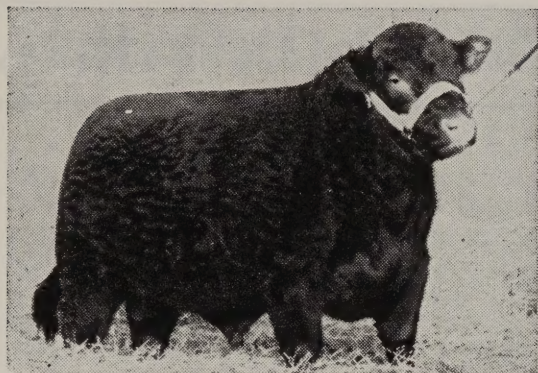

This is the most important sale in L and L history because it is the first opportunity we have had to offer sons and daughters of Oakwood Conquest in numbers.

Seven sons sell . . . one of the best groups of Polled bulls ever offered by one sire.

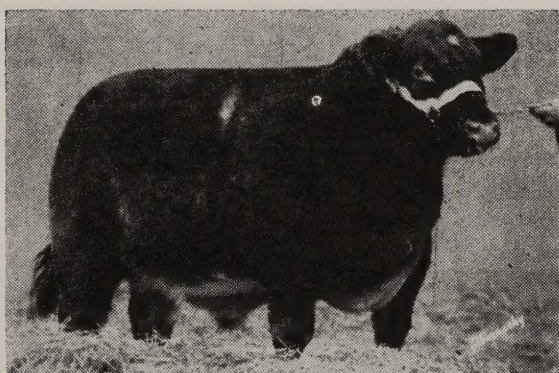

Nine daughters sell . . . we hate to part with them because our objective is to have fifty Oakwood Conquest daughters in the herd.

Twenty females sell bred to Oakwood Conquest. Note the strong service dates. Practically all of the females have early spring service dates, or will have calves at foot.

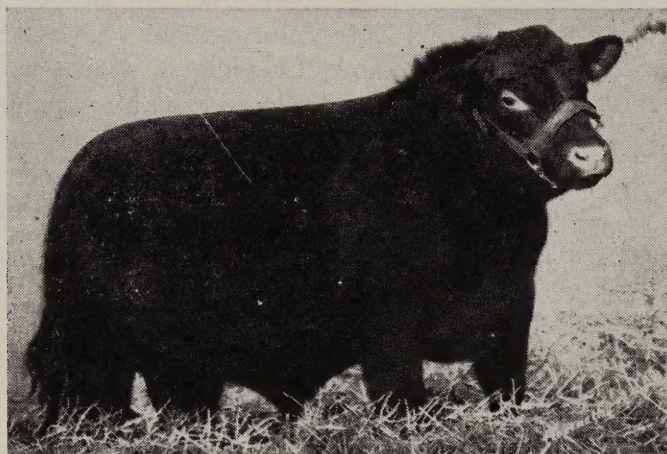

PLEASE NOTE . . . Two years ago we made a proposition to pay $250 for any Oakwood Conquest heifer calf at weaning time, if they have been properly cared for. To date, we have not had a single taker. We are still making this same proposition.

Oakwood Bequest x. Grand champion 1950 Illinois, Ohio, West Virginia, and Maryland State Fairs. Died at an early age after leaving one top calf crop.

Oakwood Request x. Herd sire for Fred Smalstig, Pittsburgh, Pa. He was used for two seasons at Oakwood. A great breeding bull.

Three Great Bulls All Out of the Dam of Oakwood Conquest x

Oakwood Bardolier x, left. Sold for $3400 in the 1949 Oakwood sale to King Bros., Capetown, South Africa. All three of these bulls are out of Bonnie Butterfly x, the dam of Oakwood Conquest x.

Oakwood Conquest x was purchased for $7000 in the 1953 Oakwood sale with the understanding that he would be left there for the remainder of that year. A bull of faultless background, he has tremendous bone, substance size, and great hindquarters. He is wide across his back from end to end, deep in the heart with a burly, masculine head. There can be no question of his potency. You will see further evidence on sale day.

We purchased this bull for $1000 in the 1957 Acadia sale. Shown just twice, he placed first at the 1956 Ohio State Fair, fourth in a long class at the 1956 International. We have never seen a bull come as fast as he has in the short time since his arrival at L and L. You will be impressed greatly by his depth, thickness, smoothness, great quarters, good head, and good doing ability. His dam, a double granddaughter of the 100% dehorner Fascinator Standard x, was sold in the L and L sale for $700 as an open heifer to Acadia. Calrossie Troubadour traces directly in three different generations to Kirkton Baronet, in the fourth to Calrossie Welcome. Because our sale females have such long service dates we have not had the opportunity to use him on many sale females. However, we do plan to offer his service as a breeding privilege on some open heifers and some cows that will calve shortly before the sale.

Scene at the first L and L sale held in 1953. The cattle are all stalled outside in paddocks and grassy lots. Come early so you can see the herd.

Our Shorthorn and Polled Shorthorn cattle, the greatest and most practical in the world, can in themselves take us only so far. The rest of the route down the paths of breed expansion must be the result of the energy, enthusiasm, and willingness to work of the men who are behind the cattle. Not everyone can be that kind of a dynamo. We are fortunate in having our share of them in this breed. Jim Adams is one that comes to everyone's mind when we think of Polled Shorthorns.

He has always been willing to leave his busy desk to represent the breed in state and national cattlemen's meetings, to visit other breeders and buck-up someone who was feeling low, or to be on the seats at the other man's sale helping in any way he could.

These are just a few of the reasons that make me feel it is important to have the kind of sale to which this man and his cattle are entitled.

Besides building a really top cow herd, Jim Adams is in the fortunate position of having one of those rare items that come to most breeders only once in a lifetime . . . a real breeding bull . . . Oakwood Conquest x. This is one of the strongest bull offerings of the year, and I have always been of the opinion that the best place to buy females is where good bulls are being produced. The females, too, are a classy group, worthy of the consideration of the finest herds.

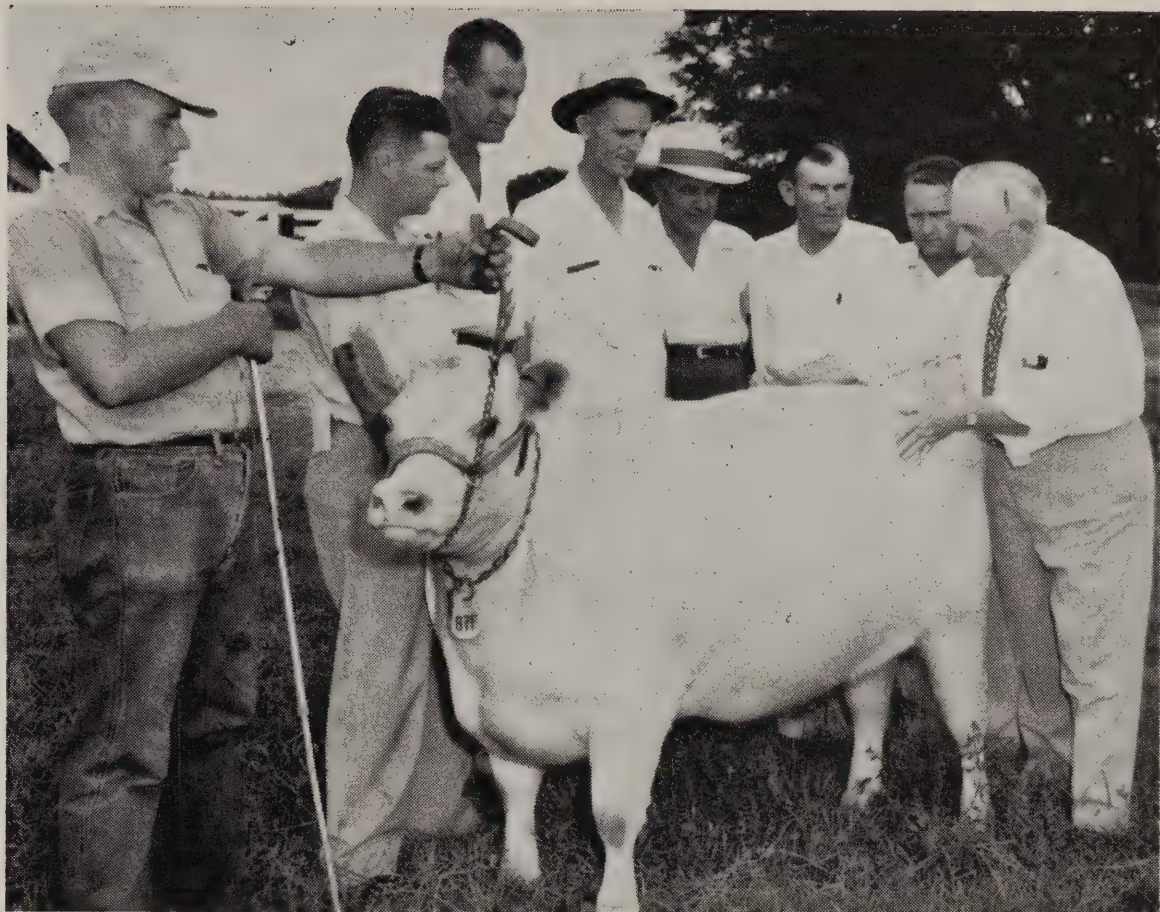

The L and L sale, held every year, regardless of shifting beef and economic conditions, has done more to promote the breed in the Southeast than any other single thing. The list of buyers printed on pages 36 and 37 tells that story.

Evidently a lot of other people feel as I do about Jim Adams. He is serving his second successive year as President of the American Polled Shorthorn Society, he is the first vice-president of the Alabama Cattlemen's Association, a past president of the Southeastern Regional Association, and in 1956 was honored as a "Builder of the Breed," an honor given to just seven men in North America each year.

Broma and Jim Adams live on the farm with their four fine children. I hope you will join all of us there on November 1. Do a little field work on your own by bringing those people in your community who are thinking about which breed to select. This is an offering that will sell them on Polled Shorthorns.

Early in our herd program we decided to blend the finest blood from Scotland's master breeders into L and L Polled productions. We purchased two bulls, Naemoor Saracen and Cromleybank Ringsider. Cromleybank Ringsider was sold in our 1955 sale and is the sire of Lot 1. Naemoor Saracen is the sire of several bulls and females in this offering, and several of the best Polled females are in calf to him. He is a three quarter brother to Dungarthill Baronet, that heads the great Wheatland herd in Washington and acknowledged to be the greatest breeding bull in the entire West. The dam of the $7,500 Louada Consort, herd sire for Billy Anderson in Iowa, and Louada Gladiator at Oklahoma A and M, is a full sister in blood to Naemoor Saracen. Every bull in this pedigree has written Shorthorn history.

L L GLOWBANK x—Everyone who has seen this bull agrees he is one of the best Polled Shorthorn bulls that will sell anywhere this year. He is sired by the imported bull Reford Gardhouse purchased for us when he judged the 1952 Perth sale. We sold Cromleybank Ringsider as a feature of our January, 1955 sale to W. C. Womack, Ashford, Alabama. Oakwood Lavender 24th x is probably the best cow in our herd. She is a half sister to our principal stock bull, Oakwood Conquest x. She was born May 4, 1951 and her first calf was a heifer born September 22, 1953 that sold in our sale to Oakwood Stock Farm. Her second calf, July 14, 1954, was the outstanding roan bull that we sold to the University of Georgia for $1,200. Her third calf is this bull born July 12, 1955 and her fourth is a heifer that we are keeping for the cow herd. These four calves were all by different bulls and each one of them was outstanding. This is the kind of cow that I would personally like my herd bull to be out of.

L L PRESIDENT CONQUEST x—Out of another of our very best cows. The dam has had only one heifer and this went at $875 to E. C. Moody Farms where she is making one of their best cows. The dam has had a calf each year since 1952. A full brother to this bull was born March 4, 1957, and we plan to retain him for herd duty. Her 1954 calf, a full brother to this bull, was the top scoring bull over all breeds at the Auburn Performance Test. He gained 2.69 lbs. per day for 154 days on test and 2.23 lbs. per day from birth to the end of the test. The second dam was by Saltoun President, a great imported bull. This bull can head one of the nation's best herds.

Here's what a Polled Shorthorn bull can do for you. The cow at right is half Jersey, half Hereford. Her calf, sired by a Polled Shorthorn bull bred by one of the members of the Southeastern Association, weighed 825 pounds at ten months of age. Shorthorns and Polled Shorthorns are the world's greatest improvers. More of this blood is needed in the Southeast.

and L & L bred Polled Shorthorns are making the record even better.

The figures below show the results of the 1956 Bull Performance Test at A.P.I., Auburn, Alabama.

	Average Daily Gain While on Test	Weight Gained Per Day of Age From Birth
Polled Shorthorns	2.53	2.02
Shorthorns	2.35	2.01
English Breed "A"	2.01	1.94
English Breed "B"	2.22	1.89
English Breed "C"	2.12	1.94

Two sons of Oakwood Conquest x from L and L Farms took part in this performance test. One bull gained 2.69 pounds per day for the 154 days on test, and 2.34 pounds every day from the day of birth to the end of the test. This bull was the top-scoring bull of the English breeds.

The other Oakwood Conquest bull gained 2.66 pounds per day for the 154 days on test and 2.45 pounds per day from birth to the end of the test. This bull was the top bull of all in rate of gain from birth until the end of the test. The average gain of the 77 bulls on test was 2.19 pounds per day for the 154 days and 1.97 pounds per day from birth to end of test.

We are equally proud of the production record at L and L, the high rate of conception, and calving. These figures are the most conclusive evidence of the health of the herd, along with the unusually long service date being offered on every sale female old enough to breed.

There are approximately 90 brood cows in the L and L herd. All but one either have calved or will calve within the year.

L L CONQUEST BUTTERFLY x—We believe this is the best female we have ever produced. She is by Oakwood Conquest x and is one of the four "Conquest Cover Girls" pictured on the front cover of this catalog. Her dam is one of the five Klaymor Judge cows we have in our herd. They have all been good producers. The Oakwood Conquest x heifer purchased by Pennsylvania State College for $2,000 in the 1957 Oakwood Sale was out of a half sister to the dam. The heifer purchased by Reford Gardhouse for $1,550 in our 1954 sale was out of the dam of this heifer. We have a full sister to this heifer born October 4, 1956 that we would not sell for any price as we are going to keep all of the rest of the heifers out of this good cow from that famous Calrossie Butterfly family. Bred March 25 to L L Glowbanks x, the great young polled bull by imported Cromleybank Ringsider that is selling as Lot 1.

These four heifers were sold in the October, 1955 L and L sale.

The purpose of L and L Farms is to promote the world's greatest breed of beef cattle. We present proudly this list of L and L buyers and hope we have not missed anyone. A large percentage of these people never owned a Shorthorn until they had purchased from us. We are also proud that now over 70% of our business is being done with cattlemen who have purchased from L and L previously. You can do the same kind of job in your area.

L F FANCY LADY x—By the Landen Farms herd sire, Glen Knolls King x. An exceptionally good cow with a red heifer calf at foot born June 5, 1957 and sired by L L Chief Control x. Bred July 20, 1957 to our new junior herd bull, Acadia Highland Jubilee x, only Polled Shorthorn bull of the famous Troubador line.

IN our last annual sale, due to having sold one of our farms, it was necessary to sell a number of our brood cows. The purchasers of these lots were well pleased and some of them got more out of the calf at side than they paid for the cow and calf.

Therefore, we have decided that at each of our annual sales, we would sell around fifteen brood cows. Many people starting in the business like to buy cows with calves at side and three-in-one deals.

We have spent eight years building our herd. Consequently, most every cow we have, including the sixteen we are selling in this sale, are good brood cows. These are not just freshly purchased animals. They have all been valued members of our permanent herd. Most of these are young . . . ones we would like to keep . . . but our pasture facilities at present are limited and our program now calls for adding Oakwood Conquest x and Nae-moor Saracen heifers. Only three of the cows were calved before 1953. We are keeping daughters of many of the cows selling.

NONE of the animals selling . . . cows, heifers, bulls . . . have ever been in a barn, nor have they ever been on nurse cows. They were left in the pasture with their mothers until weaning and then were fed in pasture lots, all the bulls together in one lot, all the heifers together in another.

These animals are what they have made themselves, without any pampering or individual feeding. We are very proud of the job they have done by themselves and the way they look.

Oakwood Conquest was a show bull. He was shown before he was a year old until he was three years old. At first we had trouble settling cows. Two years ago we started running our herd bulls in the pasture with the cows. They had only grass and during the winter the same maintenance of hay and pellets given the cows. We are still handling our herd on this basis. For that reason the herd bulls will not be in show condition, but our excellent conception and calving record on this basis far outweighs this disadvantage.

OAKLAND ROSE x—The Maxwalton Watchword x cows have been among the best producers for us and our customers. We thought it would be an attraction to include one. We have two daughters of this cow in our herd. She has produced six calves for us and they have all been good. One of them sold in our sales for $830 and another brought $750. Will calve before sale day to Naemoor Saracen.

These four heifers sold in the 1957 Oakwood sale. Quality like this is the reason why Oakwood Polled Shorthorns have led the way for over a third of a century.

Oakwood Stock Farm has participated as a guest consignor in the L and L sales since the first sale in 1953. We are proud to make these world famous bloodlines available through the L and L sale. Outside of the Oakwood sale in June, this is the only sizable draft of Oakwood cattle offered at auction during the year.

We purchased our first animals from Oakwood and have drawn on this source frequently since then. Our principal stock bull, Oakwood Conquest x, was the $7000 top of their 1953 sale.

Not only does Paul Teegardin produce top cattle, but he has been an enthusiastic and willing worker. He has been asked on numerous occasions to put his shoulder to the wheel and help put across important breed projects in the Southeast. He has never failed.

In 27 International Livestock Exhibitions, Oakwood has won 50 championships. The blood of these great champions is blended into every Oakwood production to assure improving production for those who buy.

OAKWOOD MENTOR x—A real prospect for a stock bull. He has the head of a breeding bull. He has bone and ruggedness. He has depth, thickness and with all he is smoothly turned. Shoulders well laid in. Tail setting level and full. A bull level in his lines and true. He will please the exacting breeder. Study the third bracket in his inheritance. Kirkton Baronet x and Kirkton Envoy x are rated as Scotland's best sires. Gosshall Ximenes x was a son of the Perth supreme champion Coldoch Union Jack and Oakwood Royal King was not only an International grand champion but sired more International champions than any bull in history.

He has stood well in all three shows this season, the Ohio State Fair, the Canadian National Exhibition (in horned competition) and the Ohio State Show, likewise in horned competition. He has a grand head, smooth too, the eye of a sire. He is short-legged, deep-sided, thick and full in his quarter. Any way you look at him he pleases. His dam is proving to be a top brood cow. BROOKFIELD MAGGIE x—Sired by the $3,400 Oakwood Bardolier x, who topped our 1949 sale going to head the herd of King Bros. of South Africa. She is a top cow by any standard. She has been a champion in her own right. She is out of a dam who produced champions. A daughter is a top female in the Tulleevin Farms herd. She belongs to the Gordon Maggie family, respected by breeders as consistent producers and she certainly will uphold that tradition. She is selling with a roan bull calf at foot sired by Circleview Leader x, 1954 International senior and reserve grand champion, and she is remated to Creekland Lancer, 1955 International grand champion. Rare are opportunities to own her kind.

By the same sire as the Oakwood herd bull, Oakwood Landmark x, sire of the Oakwood sale tops of 1955 and 1956; and also the International grand champion, S and G Admiration x. The dam of Oakwood Lucky Leader x was the result of mating two International grand champions, Oakwood Emperor x and Oakwood Lavender 10th x. This bull is reproducing his great background. Two sons, five daughters, one heifer bred to him selling.

E. C. MOODY FARMS

One of our principal objectives was to build the Dothan area into a Polled Shorthorn Stronghold. Certainly one of the finest of the good herds that have been established here is that of Earle C. Moody.

Earle bought his first cattle from us in 1953. He is not the kind of breeder who takes a back seat to anyone, and, in 1954 he purchased the Reserve Grand Champion and top selling bull of the National Polled Shorthorn Congress, Oakwood Consideration x, a half brother to Oakwood Conquest x. Since that time he has added females from the finest herds in the United States and Canada, as well as from L and L.

We are proud of the eleven head consignment from E. C. Moody Farms. It will add strength to an already strong offering.

Oakwood Lucky Leader x. Junior herd sire at E. C. Moody Farms. Sire, Oakwood Conqueror x, the sire of S and G Admiration x and Oakwood Landmark x.

Oakwood Consideration x, shown winning the reserve grand championship of the 1954 National Polled Shorthorn Congress.

E. C. Moody Farms productions stand the test of the stiffest competition. The top selling bull of the 1956 Oakwood Customers Sale was E C M Super Chief x, one of the first sons of Oakwood Consideration x.

E C M REBEL LEADER x—By Oakwood Leader x, our great son of Oakwood Conqueror x, champion and sire of champions, out of E C M Mistletoe Lady x, a granddaughter of Aberfeldy Model who is a great sire for Hi-Ho Farms in Maryland. A half brother to the dam of this calf topped the Oakwood Customer's Bull Sale of 1956 and is now heading the herd of Ray Harden, Sr., of Williamsport, Ohio. A half brother to the maternal granddam was top scoring bull over all British breeds in the 1955-56 Auburn Feed Tests. We think this is one of the best bulls we have ever offered for sale. Good enough to put any herd on top.

E C M LEADER'S MINA ROSE x—This good daughter of Oakwood Lucky Leader x has come this far as an orphan calf. Her dam dropped dead when this calf was one hour of age. She is backed by the finest bulls ever used at Oakwood. Her dam was a good milker and her sire is out of one of the best milk producing families. This trait is carried along in their calves. Should make an excellent brood cow. Calfhood vaccinated. Sells open with breeding privileges.

Mrs. Ada Healey and Mrs. Oliver Healey shown with Bowhill Ruby 87 F, typical of the great brood cows in the Foxdale herd. This heifer was the top selling female of the 1953 L and L sale.

Other Guest Consignments

Three other guest consignors, Foxdale Farms, Duluth, Georgia; Winwood Farms, Brundidge, Alabama; and West Farms, Dothan, Alabama; join us in this sale. These fine breeders have allowed us to select exactly the animal we wished from their herds for this sale.

All of these breeders have been L and L customers. We are proud that L and L customers are raising the kind that can go into the best herds of the land.

These entries will be among the very best in the sale.

WINWOOD AUGUSTA ANN x— Jim Adams said, "Bring a top one," and that is just what we are doing. Sired by our great breeding bull, Oakwood Headliner x, sire of the best pair of females, 1955 National Polled Shorthorn Congress and many other champions. The dam was purchased from James McLean in his herd reduction sale, and he regarded her as one of the best females he ever owned. Sandoon Captivator was the grand champion bull of the Canadian National Exhibition, sold for $3,700 as a two-year-old and again for $2,500 as a seven-year-old. Beaufort Augusta 2d is one of the very best females in the Sandoon herd in Canada.

L L Brawith Bud, Lot 71. She is also one of the four females pictured on the cover of this catalog. Purchased as a calf at foot in the 1955 L and L sale.
